Roswell Brinkman Appoints John Thompson as New Product Director for Executing Growth Strategy

Roswell Brinkman & Partners, a well-established financial services company, with John Thompson as Strategy Product Director

Thompson, who will be based at Roswell Brinkman headquarters in Singapore, brings over 20 years' experience in the financial services space.

Prior to joining Roswell Brinkman, Thompson was the Chief Product Officer for Elevate Markets, Inc. where he held the role from the launch of that company through their successful IPO in 2017. Before this role, Thompson has held senior executive roles at several large companies including JPMC, Lloyds TSB, Experian, GE Consumer Finance, and Citigroup.

Thompson comes to Roswell Brinkman with substantial expertise in advanced analytics and credit management. His experience in product management across the broad financial services spectrum will be critical as Roswell Brinkman executes on its growth strategy.

Thompson comments, "I am excited to be joining Roswell Brinkman and I am focused on unlocking the potential that exists between Roswell Brinkman and our existing business partners. The broad derivative market has seen substantial growth in the last few years, and I believe we can deliver exceptional value to our stakeholders."

Thompson earned a bachelor's degree in applied mathematics from The College of the Ozarks, and has advanced degrees in economics from Arizona State University where his focus was econometrics and statistics.

Thompson's new team will be quite active in client contacts guiding our customers in portfolio and financial planning for the next decade. "Exciting derivative products need to be presented and explained to educate our customer base and increase their activity in the new product technology space, Noted Thompson.

Thompson's Approach will lean heavily on data base management and profiling qualified clients for efferent presentations. We will target financially qualified interest groups of varying diverse financial services needs and service users with specific needs and goals.
